Our Dedication

It is seldom that we find a person who is willing to sacrifice as much time, effort, or energy to any cause as he has to John Battle High School. "Coach" Jimmy Geiger is one of these select few. We admire him because of his knowledge and his dedication to his job; that of helping us to know and understand the things in life which really count, in the classroom and out, (and the hard way, if we choose to make it that!). We like him because he is friendly, even-tempered and sincere. We respect him because he respects us, and because he has the courage to stand for that in which he believes.

All too often in life we fail to say "thank you" for the little things which make Battle a more pleasant place. It is for this purpose that we proudly dedicated THE 1968 PHOENIX to "Coach" Geiger. THANK YOU "COACH"!

TO OUR PARENTS

Today at graduation

Grateful hearts . . .

in dedication

unleash the silence

sacrifices resound

a tribute sung

Heart after heart.

FACULTY

Individual Are

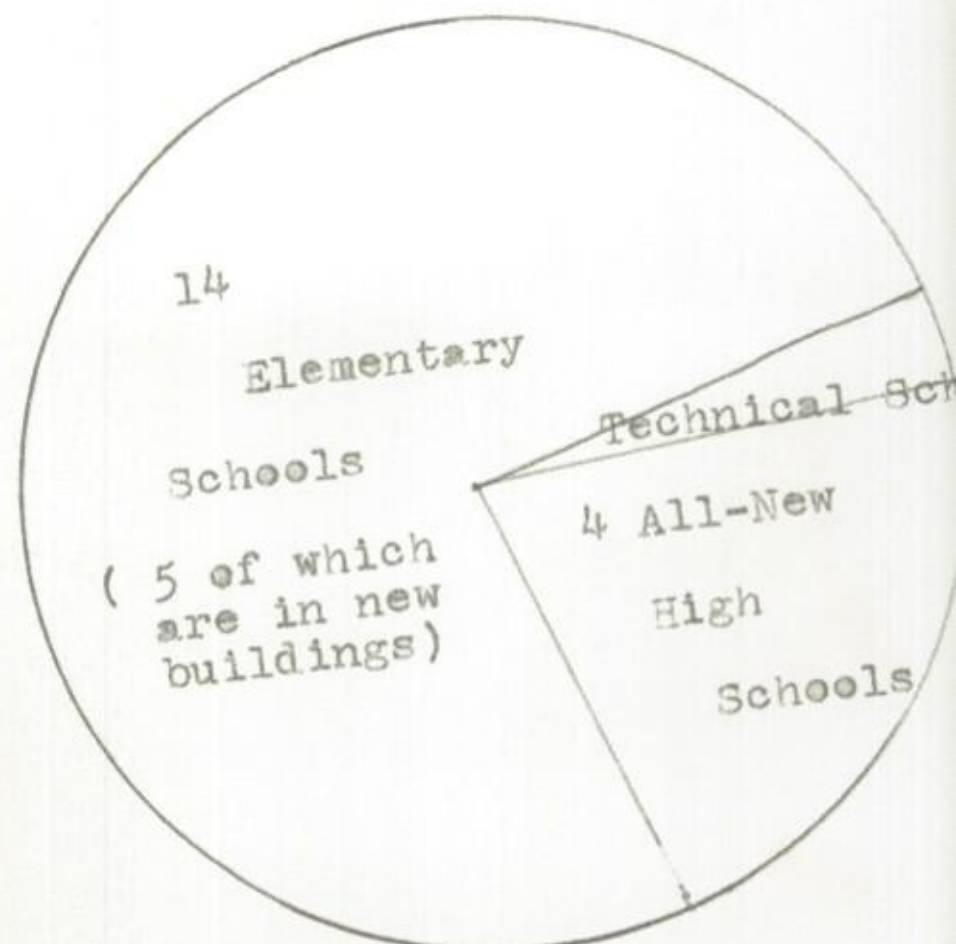

As Mr. Stanley nears the ending of his fourth term as superintendent of schools in Washington County, one finds that antiquity and barely minimum standards have been replaced by quality and school accreditation. Under his capable leadership the school system will continue to keep pace with the times; for each year school curriculums are broadened to include offerings which will better equip today's students to take their place in tomorrow's world.

ATHLETICS

In the history of the PHOENIX a dedication of this sort has never been presented, but because of the respect and recognition due this individual, we would like to dedicate this section to him. We realize that without our fine athletic teams, this portion of our annual would be impossible to produce. For this reason we are dedicating the 1968 ATHLETIC SECTION to the man who over the years has molded our teams through strong leadership and understanding. The SPORTS EDITOR and ANNUAL STAFF are proud to dedicate this section to "Coach" Bill Halstead.

TAHITIAN MEMORIES

The air was thick with romance,
The moon was big and bright,
The music was full of madness,
Which captured the spell of the night.
The dance was delightful,
And the hours did slip by,
This memory of our Tahitian Isle
Will never, never die.

The main project of the John Battle Key Club is planning a "real old fashioned" Christmas for the children of the orphanage at Grundy, Virginia. Clothes, toys, books and all the things that make Christmas a never-to-be-forgotten day for children of every age are bought, wrapped, and delivered to the children by the Key Clubbers. Naturally they wait until all the packages are opened . . . this is part of the warm glow for them and the project on the part of the Key Club members.

The debate society has as its chief aim the furthering of the skills of reasoning, research and extemporaneous speaking. This society represents John Battle in all debating activities outside the school including Invitational Tournaments and District and State Forensic Competition. The 1967-68 debate season continued the successful participation of John S. Battle in State and local competition. In October, four debaters Roy Ogle, Nancy Benfield, Eddie Godsey and Mitch Hounshell received certificates of "outstanding participation" in the University of Virginia's Annual Forum on Public Affairs. The debate team also attended the 23rd Invitational Tournament at the University of Richmond in March. Roy Ogle and Bill Fleenor won all the rounds of affirmative debate and Nancy Benfield and Eddie Godsey won two out of three rounds on negative. Nancy and Bill received outstanding speaker awards in that tournament. The varsity teams representing John Battle in District 6 competition were Roy Ogle and Eddie Godsey—Affirmative; Nancy Benfield and Bill Fleenor—Negative.

The topic for 1967-68 season was: Resolved: That Congress should establish uniform regulations to control criminal investigation procedures.

Returning To Battle—

THE PEGASUS STAFF

THE 1967-68 SCHOOL YEAR SAW THE REBIRTH OF THE PEGASUS, A STUDENT LITERARY MAGAZINE. THE BOOKLET CONTAINED THE CREATIVE LITERATURE OF MANY BATTLE STUDENTS. THE PEGASUS WAS EDITED AND PRODUCED BY AN EDITORIAL STAFF OF JUNIORS AND SENIORS UNDER THE DIRECTION OF MRS. PHOEBE BLEVINS AND MR. RICHARD SMITH.

The "Phoenix" Staff

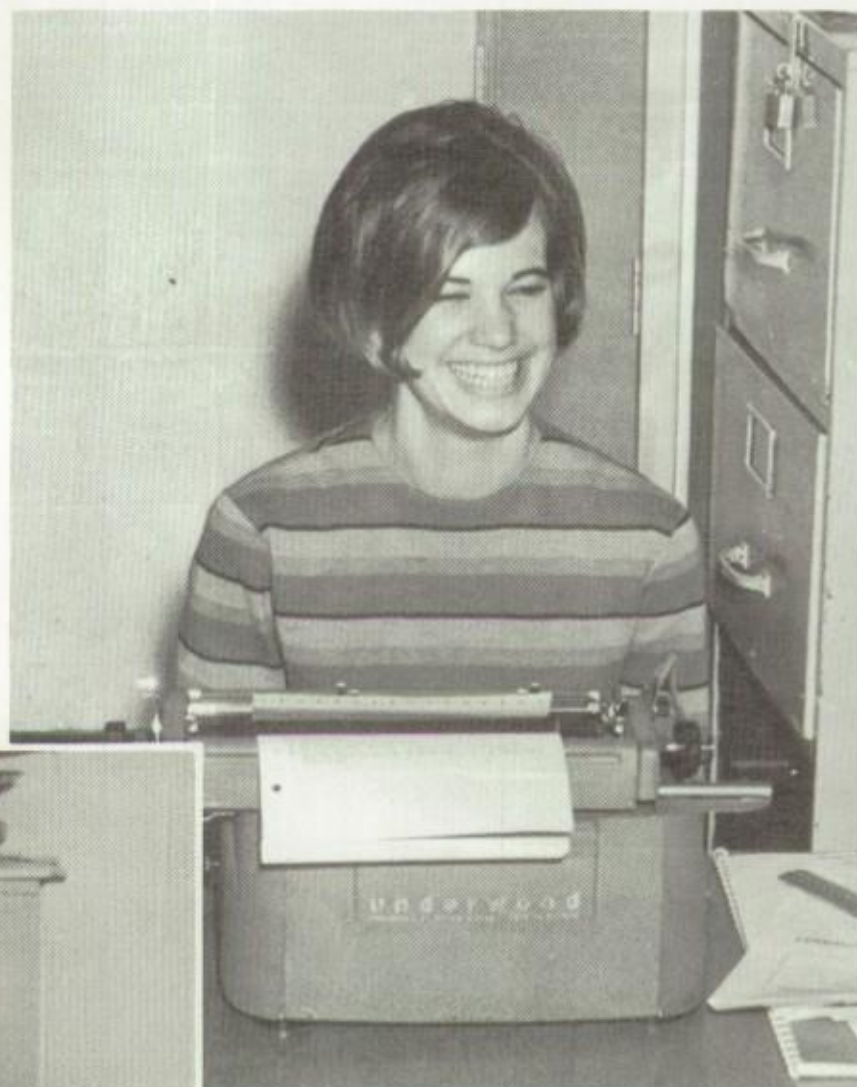

Editor to Assistant Editor "Let's juggle these and see what we come up with".

"I don't know if I should trust a girl to work on the Sports or not"
...

"Only 101 more pages and it'll all be done".

"Would you believe Hope just typed a line of gobbledygook on somebody's layout?"

The pleased looks on the business manager and assistant's faces seems to indicate the ad section is the biggest yet!

Finds Plenty Of Work—But Very Little Glory!

"To put your best foot forward when selling ads, it's well to go FIRST CLASS!"

There are days . . . when working on the yearbook . . . that one can find little about which to smile.

"Battle Cry" was self-supporting for the first time this year. The paper features an extensive use of photography, several innovations, such as the use of the photo montage, were copied by area schools. Emphasis was placed on feature stories instead of news. Battle's first April Fool paper, Battle Scythe, was appreciated by nearly everyone.
